DO YOU HAVE A STORY OF STEWARDSHIP TO SHARE?

The Oregon Conference Media Center is looking to create a video series of stewardship stories. We are looking for all kinds of stories that are related to stewardship. They do not have to be stories from just within the Oregon Conference. Send us names and contact information of individuals that you think have a great stewardship story to tell. Once we receive a list of potential stories we will make a quick phone call to them and get the gist of the story and then we will choose the stories that would be best to pursue at this point. We would then set up a time to do a video interview and some re-enactment.

Thank you for sending us the story leads you know of. We are entrusted by God with everything we have on this earth. We are responsible to Him for their proper use. We hope by telling peoples stewardship stories that more people can receive the outpouring of blessings from God. Send story leads to the Oregon Conference Media Center, Director J.C. Munoz at: munozeditor@gmail.com
